

Peggy Guggenheim and London @
Ordo vas - W1S 2ER - Until 14.12.19

A celebration of Peggy Guggenheim's London Gallery, which was open for just 18 months from January 1938 to June 1939. The exhibition highlights two artists whom she showed during this period, Yves Tanguy and Hans Arp. The choice of these two showcases her parallel interest as a collector and dealer in surrealism and abstraction.
