

A QUICK ONE

WHAT TO SEE

Monochrome No. 2 @ Ordovas - W1S 2ER - Until 25.4.20

If you still got those January blues, this might be the show for you... An exhibition that focuses on how artists have considered the complexities of the colour blue in their work. Ranging from an intimate Jackson Pollock drawing to a newly commissioned Joseph Kosuth neon work, the wide array of powerful works in this show is not to be missed.
