The Poets of Glass: Exhibition of works from Lucien Arkas' collection opens at Antik A.S.

Lucian Freud portraits of his second wife go on display to public at Ordovas in London

Lucian Freud, Girl in Bed, 1952. © The Lucian Freud Archive / Bridgeman Images.

LONDON.- Girl – Lucian Freud is dedicated to the moving portraits that Lucian Freud made of Caroline Blackwood, the eldest child of the 4th Marquess of Dufferin and Ava and the brewery heiress Maureen Guinness. When she was just twenty-two Caroline eloped with Freud to Paris, before marrying him a year later in 1953. On public display from 5 June to 1 August, the exhibition chronicles Caroline's relationship with Freud through a series of portraits painted between 1950 and 1956, and includes Girl in Bed and Girl Reading, both painted in 1952, and Girl by the Sea, 1956, Freud's last portrait of Caroline, now revealed as having been painted in Pedregalejo near Malaga, Spain. The Sisters, a delicate canvas depicting the eye of Caroline, will also be shown for the first time in the UK. Photographic and archival material includes the first public exhibition of the leather-bound notebook Caroline took to her initial sitting for Freud at Delamere Terrace. Freud's ... More

Queensland Art Gallery in Brisbane acquires five rare prints by Pablo Picasso

Pablo Picasso Spain (1881-1973) / Le Repas frugal (The frugal meal) (from 'La Suite des Saltimbanques' series) (detail) 1904, printed 1913 / Etching and scraper on Van Gelder Zonen wove paper / Purchased 2015 with funds from the Margaret Olley Art Trust through the Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art Foundation / Collection: QAGOMA.

BRISBANE.- Queensland Art Gallery | Gallery of Modern Art has acquired and is planning to display five rare prints by Pablo Picasso (1881-1973), one of the most celebrated artists of the twentieth century. The five new works are from a group of 15 etchings and drypoints known as 'La Suite des Saltimbanques' and were created on the cusp between the artist's 'blue' (1901-04) and 'rose' (1904-06) periods. The new prints are integrally connected to Picasso's paintings and drawings of the same period, which significantly includes La Belle Hollandaise 1905, held in the QAGOMA Collection. The Gallery is extraordinarily fortunate to hold one of Picasso's most celebrated early paintings, La Belle Hollandaise 1905. This group ... More
