

Events and Parties

Editors' Picks: 15 Things Not to Miss in New York's Art World This Week

The new year's first batch of gallery openings are fully underway.

Sarah Cascone, January 7, 2019

Through Friday, January 11

Installation view of George Condo's work on view in "Bacon's Women," alongside a work by the British artist. Photo courtesy of Ordovas.

7. "Bacon's Women" at Ordovas

Even if already you've seen "Bacon's Women," the first US show to focus on Francis Bacon's depictions of women, it's worth a trip back during the show's last week. After American artist George Condo visited, he was so inspired by Bacon's portrait of British artist and artists' model Isabel Rawsthorne that he painted his own version of the work in response. It's now been added to the show, highlighting Bacon's continued influence on contemporary figurative painting.

Location: Ordovas, 9 East 77th Street

Price: Free

Time: Tuesday–Saturday, 10 a.m.–6 p.m.

—Sarah Cascone