PICTURE PERFECT

We pick three free portrait shows to see this week

BP PORTRAIT AWARD

From famous sitters to family members, like Michael Gaskell's acrylic painting of his niece 'Eliza' (pictured), every face tells a different story in this annual portrait prize.

National Portrait Gallery, WC2H 0HE.
Thu Jun 18 ▶ Sep 20.

GIRL

Lucian Freud's second wife and Guinness heiress Lady Caroline Blackwood was the archetypal muse with her big, blue-grey doe-eyes and pale complexion.

This show presents the mystifying portraits Freud made during their turbulent six-year relationship.
Ordovas, W1S 2ER. ▶ Aug 1.

REFLECTIONS ON THE SELF

Artists from Rembrandt van Rijn (pictured) to Sarah Lucas take a long hard look at themselves in this comprehensive study of self-portraiture that traces the genre's development over the past 500 years.

Christie's Mayfair, W1S 1ST. ▶ Sep 5.

Opening this week

Christina Broom: Fighters and Suffragettes

Considered the first female press photographer, Christina Broom took to the Edwardian London streets documenting pivotal moments of cultural history from Oxford Street bustling with horse-drawn carriages to suffragettes campaigning for women's rights. Here, previously unseen photographs and personal memorabilia give this unsung hero of photography her time in the spotlight. Museum of London Docklands reopens Fri, 12-3 PM, 2007 BK45. * Canary Wharf, London E14 3UG. ▶ Nov 7, Daily 10am-5pm.

Best Women's Photographer of the Year Thought-provoking topics

Artists Talk Colourful abstract monograms by the London-based German artist Oliver Klee. John St. Martin 2ES. 7242 9804. * Chancery Lane, Thur: 10 ▶ Jul 26, Fri/Sat noon-6pm.

Clayton Kopp: National Art & Antiques Fair Explore this inspiring treasure trove of a fair with thousands of exhibits, including antiques and contemporary art from 170 specialist dealers. You might need to multiply first for these bargains as prices vary from the affordable (£1,000) to the astronomical (£1 million) but you could still walk away with your very own piece of art history. Hyattia London Hampermarket, R4 4 6UX. 1 370 8308. * Kensington (Olympia), Thu Jun 18 ▶ Jun 26, Mon, Fri-Sun 11am-7pm; Thu 11am-9pm.
