Tales of Paradise: Gauguin at Ordovas, London, from February 4 to April 18, 2014

Tales of Paradise: Gauguin, on public display at Ordovas, will examine Paul Gauguin's search for the primitive both in Brittany and Tahiti, using the artist's own writings, painting and sculpture, as well as through the prism of modern literature. Exploring Gauguin's time in Le Pouldu, Brittany, the exhibition focuses on Gauguin's own writings, in particular the letters he wrote to his fellow artists, including Vincent van Gogh. The exhibition also reflects on Gauguin's time at Hiva Oa through Mario Vargas Llosa's literature - itself testimony to the mythic power of Gauguin's life and work, and its ability to inspire new art.
